Thank you to all who participated in the concert, particularly 万敏 Wan Min, 陈彤 Chen Tong Laoshi’s lovely wife, who was our featured performer, as well as to all who helped with the organization and production!

One more shout out to 石锋 Shi Feng Laoshi, who conceptualized this event early last year and to 陈形 Chen Laoshi for making this happen!

Our China Night Production will be held in McCullough at 7:30 pm on Saturday, August 5th. We are looking forward to seeing the performances you have all worked so hard on! Many people have been practicing for the show; listen at meals for announcements from 陈彤 Chen Laoshi about rehearsal; a schedule will be posted soon.

IMPORTANT... PLEASE NOTE! The entire show will be video-taped so that students and teachers who want a souvenir of the night’s show download the file. We cannot edit individuals out of the tape. Any student who does not want to appear in the video should not perform.

Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon

八月四日　星期五
晚上七點半
Friday, August 4th
7:30 PM　MBH 216

We've had several requests to add Ang Lee's 2000 international box office smash to our film list this summer...

The name "Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon" is a literal translation of the Chinese idiom "臥虎藏龍" which describes a place or situation that is full of unnoticeable masters. It is from a poem of the ancient Chinese poet Yu Xin's (513–581) that reads "暗石疑藏虎, 盤根似臥龍", which means "behind the rock in the dark probably hides a tiger, and the coiling giant root resembles a crouching dragon." The last character in Xiaohu and Jiaolong's names mean "Tiger" and "Dragon" respectively.

In 19th century Qing Dynasty China, a warrior (Chow Yun-Fat) gives his sword, Green Destiny, to his lover (Michelle Yeoh) to deliver to safe keeping, but it is stolen, and the chase is on to find it. The search leads to the House of Yu where the story takes on a whole different level.

(1) The first stop will be the Robert Frost Interpretive Trail, which is a 1-mile long flat loop. There are placards of many of Robert Frost's poems to read along the way.

(2) The second stop is Robert Frost's Cabin. Also known as the Homer Noble Farm, it is a National Historic Landmark in Ripton, Vermont. American poet Robert Frost (1874-1963) lived and wrote in the summer and fall months from 1939 until his death in 1963.

(3) The final stop is Texas Falls, another short 1-mile long loop where Texas Falls, one of Vermont's most beautiful waterfalls, can be viewed from both above and below the falls. This is a great place to take pics!
